W.A.No. 316 of 2006

JUDGMENT: (per the Hon'ble Sri Justice B. Prakash Rao)

Heard the learned counsel on either side and at their request, the main writ appeal itself is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

The appellant is the management of the institution against which the first respondent filed W.P.No.16208 of 2005, inter alia, seeking a direction to consider the application filed by her and pass appropriate orders in regard to her promotion as Head Mistress.

The learned Single Judge disposed of the writ petition at the admission stage itself directing the fourth respondent herein to pass appropriate orders on the representation dated 28.02.2005 within two weeks from that day.

The main grievance of the appellant is that there are several other candidates who also stand on the same footing as that of the first respondent, therefore, the cases of all such candidates are to be considered together rather than considering the case of the first respondent alone.

Having considered the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and having perused the material on record, there cannot be any dispute of the fact that if there are any such eligible candidates as that of the first respondent, the cases of all such candidates fall for consideration together, to the post of Head Mistress.

Having regard to the same, we feel it more apt to direct the cases of all eligible candidates to be considered together, rather than directing the case of the first respondent alone is to be considered.

Subject to the above said modification, the writ appeal is disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.
